WEEKLY NEWS

PRINCIPAL'S NOTE

SCC Community:
It is a great day to be a Saint!

Week in Review:

This has been a very full week here at SCC. Today is the last day of classes for the class of 2024. Today the yearbook class presented a beautiful senior slide show. Tomorrow kicks off their senior week activities with our Prom with Red Carpet introductions at Rec Park at 6:00 PM. All are welcome to come and see our students! Next week the seniors will also visit their elementary schools, have their class trip, and some much needed relaxation time before Baccalaureate Mass on the 27th and Graduation on the 28th. Please keep the senior class in your thoughts and prayers as they celebrate this momentous occasion. Today was also our Summer House Olympics. The students were filled with passion and Saints pride! Congratulations to the House of St. Ignatius Loyola for their victory!

Our students also presented a video that they made thanking Cornelius Deep for all that he has done for our school community this year. Unfortunately, Corn needs to return to Seminary studies for the next school year. We wish him all the luck on his journey to the priesthood! He will always be a SCC Saint!

Congratulations also to SCC Senior Mason Gault who just this week was informed that he will be an Eagle Scout!

Please be sure to look at all the attachments on the left column. New this week is an invitation to the CSBC End of Year Fun Night, an opportunity to work with Mr. Bill Clark, an Olympic Athlete, World Record Holder, and SCC faculty member this summer, and a summer life skills course offering for middle school students co-taught by SCC rising Senior Christian Taber and former President of the CSBC Dr. Elizabeth Carter.

Have a wonderful weekend!
Thank you,
Mr. Patrick Monachino
